

The FCC should not implement any proposal lessening Indiana's Telephone Privacy Act. I used to have 10-20 not available call's per day on my caller ID when I returned home from work - now there are usually none. Then right at dinner time they would start again. Life is so much better without these annoying calls. Indiana's law is very important to me.